A Violence Prevention Seminar

sponsored by the

Sussex County Strength Without Violence Community Alliance, the United Way of Sussex County, & Rutgers University School of Social Work, Center on Violence Against Women & Children presenting

DOROTHY EDWARDS, Ph.D.

Dr. Edwards is the founder of the GREEN DOT movement, a comprehensive model of violence prevention that emphasizes the role of bystanders in addressing power-based personal violence including sexual violence, dating violence and stalking.

This presentation will review the key literature and research that informs the model, provide an overview of the GREEN DOT model of violence prevention, and discuss potential application of the model across a variety of settings.
